Summer in Sunningdale

Broomhall Park continues to be busy with Be Military Fit, tennis, football and families visiting to use the playgrounds. Fieldhouse Coffee is now open 6 days a week, serving a selection of food and drink, including Mr Whippy ice creams.

Volunteering opportunities are available in Sunningdale with the Litter Picking Group and driving opportunities with Ascot Volunteer Bureau and Ascot Day Centre. Please visit the volunteering page on our website for further details.

The summer bloom baskets have now been put up throughout the village, and the coronation decorations will remain to decorate the village in the summery months.

Sunningdale Library Summer Reading Challenge. You can join the Challenge either at Sunningdale Library based at Broomhall Park on Friday afternoons from 4pm, Saturdays and Sundays, or you can join online.

The Village Hall provides two spaces available for hire, a small hall and a large hall, both of which have their own kitchens. Please call 01344 297250 for further information or visit the Sunningdale Village Hall website.

Holy Trinity Church hosts coffee mornings on Wednesdays, and Hope Church is running a Hope Explored course on 6, 13 and 27 June 10-11:15, alongside their usual food share drop-in on Tuesdays from 12-1.
